		Name: Nanci Tareco Neff da Cruz
Name of priority campaign: International Students; Be part of Anglia Ruskin. Be participative, Be included.
Input (resources, time and budget)	Activity	Completion date	Outcomes (the result, effect, change etc)	Indictors of outcome
It can include food, music, social parties about their culture. Once every month or 2 months, for each nationality present their own around campus in groups	Festival and events related nationalities in campus	April 2016	It can be more noticed, more integrated not only between themselves, but socialise with people from other countries and English people as well. It will change the wall that we normally build up between us, and people like to visit and travel those countries in Summer	It will give even more prestige to the Uni and will bring more diversity to the future generations
Create activities in arts and more little film festivals in the uni (together with the societies or create a new society that can deal with this for international students)	Arts and film activities/festivals	Dec 2015	With these activities people can share more about their culture, about their countries, and exchange their social knowledge with others. Arts has been a huge and great connection in this field and could grow with active participation.	We can be pioneers and grow more in this field. Including doing exchange trips to those countries in holiday breaks with the members of the society.
Contact organisations that deal with this, and do every year a convention about human rights, and every 3 months talks and speeches done by the students about their countries and give them freedom of speech as	Human rights conventions/talks/speeches	Feb 2016	With these activities we can open the consciousness of many people from different sides. We can talk about the realities, the pros and the against of different cultures, their situations, we can create a new education based in sell information, directly coming from people and those involved in it like organisations as 'Save the Children' etc.	This can give a good image as well to Anglia Ruskin and how much we are interested in giving our support to these kind of issues and stop the abuse of much for the native English citizens.			That can talk about social and political issues about international level, instead of just getting information from media.	rights in a general way.

Were natives and international can socialise and be together. Little groups. We can organise tours and get special discounts for students with some agency or with transport companies	Touristic visits outside of uni, Cambridge, London, any other city or town in England.	March 2016	With these activities, everyone can chill out and as well visit historic and touristic zones together and exchange culture in a fun way.	We can open more doors for English students and as well international, so they can know more about UK, but as well other countries and open the interest of travelling outside.
