Position	Executive Officers
Date Of Request	14-Mar
Name Of Campaign	Let's Be Honest/De-Stress Events: De-Stress Fest
Date Of Campaign	April 23rd-27th

Item Description	Cost	Why You Need This	Web Links To Product	Amount Given
DIY Stress Balls materials: flour, balloons, tablecloth	£20.00	This was a popular event last year for students to create a takeaway stress ball. This will be an active 'making' event held on both campuses.
Prosecco, Fruit Juice, Plastic Champagne Flutes	£250.00	This was a popular giveaway last year for students at the library to relax and celebrate their successes. This will be held on Cambridge, Chelmsford, and Peterborough campus.
Play dough	£30.00	Studies show that 'making' and 'creating' helps students to de-stress and relax. Play dough is inexpensive, but will allow students to have this experience. We will provide this on Cambridge and Chelmsford campus.
Hand massages from Lush Cosmetics	£200.00	Students have been extraordinarily engaged with events from Lush Cosmetics - staff can bring solid massage oils to Cambridge and Chelmsford campus and not only give hand and arm massages, but teach students how to do it.

Tea and hot chocolate stall	£20.00	Costs of materials for hot chocolate and tea to provide for Chelmsford society and Cambridge student space.
Fruit, water, face wipes, deoderant, toothbrushes, gum, pens	£500.00	To make study kits to hand out to hard-working students at all campuses.
Postcards and pens	£50.00	To write letters to self pre-exams encouraging self to do well, keep head up etc. We will look at posting internally with residential to arrive during exams.
Therapy animals	£500.00	To bring small animals to Cambridge and Chelmsford campuses to de-stress with furry friends. This cost is doubling last year's cost for one campus.
Total Requested	£1,570.00		Total Allocated	£0.00
