HEMS Faculty Rep (Cambridge): Bethany Miller

---

Updated: 18/09/20

Completed:

- Working alongside VPs, I have continued on the hidden disabilities campaign to launch sunflower lanyards. This has now taken off and these lanyards are available for students. I would like to advertise this more in the university to raise awareness.

Things for the future:

- Continue to raise awareness around hidden disabilities and what they mean for students, including how they can be helped so staff and students have a greater understanding

HEMS Faculty Rep (Chelmsford): Imogen Lay

Updated: 18/09/20

Completed:

- Liaised with HoS and HEMS reps to discuss Allied Health timetabling issues. Mainly done, but some smaller meetings to still be had. To be completed by next week.
- Had meetings with Riya to discuss student experience feedback that was collected in TRI2 (before/at the start of lockdown). Created a small list of things we can do to support students over the next few months.

Things for the future:

- Working on Sustainability project- currently doing project plan and brainstorming with other members of exec.
- Need to enquire about a Christmas day style event. Last year was so successful and a great experience and I want to do it again, but this depends on COVID. If any Chelmsford based member wants to team up for this, please let me know (also if any Cambridge member wants to host an event there, there was some comments last year that Cambridge wanted an event).

HEMS Faculty Rep (Chelmsford): Olu Onasanya
