

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE UPDATE

AMANDA CAMPBELL-WHITE - VICE PRESIDENT
(ARTS, HUMANITIES & SOCIAL SCIENCES)

My campaigns, policy and other work

My campaigns

A Bloody Mess	In Progress
Pledges Page has been set up to gather support for the campaign - we are on 144 responses! Thank you to all those who have signed and shared several times! But I still need to reach more students (societies, students on all your courses) - Please keep sharing. I will be going around freshers fair with my personal Ipad getting more pledges. Hannah and I have started working on a survey to gather more evidence amongst students just at aru. So keep watch this space! My comms plan is in and I am super excited about the designs for this campaign :D

Raise The Bar ARU	In Progress
The bar campaign this year has a rebrand and been re-energised! University have set up a working group for the bar - so at the moment I am having weekly meetings with them. Currently looking at spaces and seeing potential.

Mental Health (Team Campaign)	In Progress

Other relevant updates

Actions updated: 14/09/18

SRWG stuff:

REPS - GREAT WAY TO GET FACES OUT THERE to wider student body
Student services are seeking students to participate in the Consent Collective's How To Be Good in Bed gameshow which will be delivered on Cambridge and Chelmsford campuses on the evenings of Tuesday 15th and Wednesday 16th October respectively. Looking for volunteers from across the student body.. So exec help and volunteers would be great! What is essential is that they'd be happy talking in front of a large audience of their peers and that they would have something interesting to say about consent, relationships, gender and student life (we'll support them with this).

For any students who are interested in finding out more we'll be able to send them an outline of the show well in advance. This will give them a really good idea of the material we're going to cover and the kinds of contributions they might want to make in the show. We'll also want to rehearse with everyone on campus in any kind of room that's got a few tables in it and can fit 12 of us in for a rehearsal

'How to be good in bed' is a game show designed to get students thinking and talking about consent, sexual harassment, gender, power, sex and relationships. The show is purposefully high energy, fun, and also covers some challenging material. We're looking for students who would like to be guest panelists on the show, working in a team with one of our regular team captains. Anyone who is interested in participating in the show will get a full outline of the show well in advance so that they are able to prepare some of their answers for the various rounds. We'll also ask that everyone attends a rehearsal on campus.. If you have any questions about this or would like to register your interest in participating please contact the founder of The Consent Collective, Nina Burrowes: nina@consentcollective.com and David Walmsley from student services: david.walmsley@anglia.ac.uk

General update:

- Freshers